

Family Business Australia - Adviser Education Course

Launching Pad™

Your first step to FBA Adviser Accreditation

The Course

We are delighted to present in Australia the US-based Family Firm Institute's Course, The Launching Pad™. This course will be delivered in collaboration with FFI, the day prior to FBA's National Conference in Sanctuary Cove, Queensland. FFI is an organisation specifically for advisers to family business and is a world leader in family business adviser education. We highly recommend this course for advisers serious about family business. Additionally, advisers seeking FBA Adviser Accreditation must complete this course.

What will you learn?

Understanding the many dimensions and dynamics of advice, consultations and education for a family-owned business is a critical factor as you differentiate yourself in this growing field. The Launching Pad™ is an interactive seminar designed as an introduction for family business professionals new to the practice of family business advising. Participants in the seminar will be exposed to the core concepts of interdisciplinary advising to family businesses professionals through lectures and case studies.
